Swede's Technique

By WHITNEY MARTIN NEWTOWN, Conn., (P) - FI

Patterson now knows what hit him ist June 26.
For the first time, he says, he took a peek at movies of the bout in which he lost his heavyweight campionship to Ingemar Johansson.

It was strictly a private showing for Floyd, his "technical adviser," Joe Louis, and his trainer, Dan Florio, and after it was over Patterson kept any thoughts about the film to himself.

the film to himself.

Patterson, who will seek to regain his crown when he meets Ingemar at the Polo Grounds June 20, boxed four rounds Tuesday in the ring set up in the abandoned road house where he lives and trains.

He went two rounds with a burly Cuban heavyweight, Julio Mederos, and then a round and three-quarters with his brother, Ray, 17. The second round was cut short when Floyd clipped his kinsman with a stout left hook. Ray didn't go down, but he was in a bit of trouble.

Patterson crowded both spar-ring mates, thus following the ad-vice Louis has given him.

Patterson appeared casual and confident, before, during and after confident, before, during and after the workout. Louis reiterated his opinion that Patterson should crowd Ingemar, and keep the Swede squarely in front of him. Joe again referred to his bouts with Max Schmeling, demonstrat-ing how he kept his left low after a jab in the first fight, making him subpersible for Schmelings, right vulnerable for Schmeling's right.

"In the second fight I held it like this," Joe said, holding his arm and shoulder high.

It was mentioned that it wouldn't have mattered how he held his left in the second fight, as Schmeling didn't get a chance to hit him. Joe just grinned.
